EDITOR'S INTRODUCTION

IN offering this volume to the church schools both editor and author have sought to meet a very definite and pressing need—that of supplying a body of worthy religious music carefully adapted to children.

Every religious educator knows that worship plays a very necessary and vital part in the child's spiritual development. Music is, for childhood at least, the most effective stimulus to worship as well as its most natural mode of expression. But to serve its purpose the music must be within the range of the child's comprehension and appreciation, and it must be within his capacity for vocal expression. It must also be suitable in theme, inspiring in sentiment, and worthy in æsthetic quality.

The hymnology of the church, great and inspiring as it is, has not served well the musical needs of children. It was originally written for adults, both as to words and music, and, with a few notable exceptions, has been beyond the understanding and the musical capacity of childhood. The result has been compilations for our Sunday schools consisting for the most part of hymns good enough in themselves, but unsuited to younger singers; and, supplementing these, a collection of songs not calculated to lead to a later appreciation of our great religious hymns.

It is believed that the present volume is a marked step in advance in hymnology for children. Great care has been taken in choosing themes, in versification, and in the music itself to make the selections a stimulus to worship while at the same time affording the child a suitable instrument for expression through the voice. Much of the material is new and offered here for the first time.

Not only is the author herself a musician and composer of note, but she is also a teacher and director of children's music in church schools. Besides having the technical counsel and criticism of many distinguished musicians in the selection, adaptation, and composition of her materials, she has had the constant guidance and help of groups of children in the singing of her songs and hymns and the use of her worship programs. And of course the test of actual use—the classroom response in feeling, appreciation, and expression—is the final and surest test of any materials.

The inclusion of typical worship programs will prove a welcome feature to many church schools. Each program is built around a definite theme, and all its parts are selected and adjusted to develop that theme. When the matter of the program has been thoroughly memorized its effectiveness will be much greater in the exercise of true worship.

If through A FIRST BOOK IN HYMNS AND WORSHIP our children find their love and appreciation for good music increasing, and if through it they more and more learn to use beautiful and worthy hymns as the language of their worship, then the purposes of this volume will have been accomplished.

FOREWORD

THIS book is an attempt to put within access of younger children three kinds of songs and hymns.

I. A share of those which have been handed down to them from the past—treasures which they will always want to draw upon in common with their elders.

II. Selections from representative recent and contemporary writers whose hearts beat in sympathy with children and whose music is suited to their developing voices

III. New texts and settings which have been created to fill out, taken together with the other two types, the whole round of a child's eager interest in life.

If the last group serves in any measure the purpose for which it is made, it will incite those who value the use of fine poetry and true music in religious education to set up and maintain ever higher standards for the elements which are utilized in the training of American children in the fine art of worship.

The musical contributions of Mr. William R. McAllaster, and his valuable counsel in the preparation of the manuscript and in proof correction are here acknowledged with personal appreciation of his work.

Effort has been made to give due credit to the original sources of all hymns and tunes which have been used. Inability to find such data is responsible for any omissions or errors of this nature.

VICTROLA RECORDS LISTED FOR SPECIAL OCCASIONS

(Valuable assistance in the choice of these records was rendered by Miss Grace Barr, West Boylston, Massachusetts, who will give wise counsel to any one wishing to make a study of this educational use of music.)

The Victrola may be used to supplement, never to supplant, singing or playing that can be done by the group or individuals in the school. When there is need for the knowing of some standard religious composition, unusual solo instruments or voices, unique descriptive music or songs of birds, the Victrola is an essential part of the equipment of a well-ordered school.

The hearing of the folk songs of different peoples has been shown to be a vital factor in cultivating the appreciation on the part of the children for unfamiliar folk, and in stimulating that friendship which is the essence of genuine missionary effort.

The following list gives some varieties of music which have been found to evoke gratifying response from children. (Most of the records listed are double-faced, but only one side is referred to):

On a Spring Day

(To be recited before singing hymn)

Lo, the winter is past;
The rain is over and gone;
The flowers appear on the earth;
The time of the singing of birds is come,
And the voice of the turtle-dove is heard in our land;
The fig tree ripeneth her green figs,
And the vines are in blossom;
They give forth their fragrance.

We Thank Thee

19

(Sing to the tune, "Dresden." The refrain of "Thank the Lord for All His Love" may be used if desired.)

1 We thank thee, O our Father,
For all thy loving care;
We thank thee that thou madest
The world so bright and fair.
We thank thee for the sunshine,
And for the pleasant showers;
And, O our God, we thank thee,
We thank thee for the flowers.

2 Out in the sunny meadows,
And in the woodlands cool,
Upon the breezy hillside,
And by each reedy pool,
And in the quiet pasture,
And by the broad highway;
All pure, and fresh, and stainless,
They spring up every day.

3 And in the dusty city,
Where busy crowds pass by,
And where the tall dark houses
Stand up and hide the sky,
And where through lanes and alleys
No pleasant breezes blow,
E'en there, O God our Father,
Thou mak'st the flowers grow.

4 And whether in the city
Or in the fields they dwell;
Always the same sweet message
The fair, sweet flowers tell.
For they are all so wonderful,
They show thy power abroad;
And they are all so beautiful,
They tell thy love, O God.

55

(To be sung to tune of "Bird Lullaby")

1 High in the elm tree
Oriole hangs up his nest;
He wears a trim coat
And an orange vest.

2 There in the hammock
Swing the babies to and fro;
Mother bird feeds them,
Guarding as they grow.

1. When morn-ing gilds the skies, My heart a-wak-ing cries, May Je-sus Christ be praised!
2. When-e'er the sweet church bell Peals o-ver hill and dell, May Je-sus Christ be praised!

A-like at work and prayer, To Je-sus I re-pair; May Je-sus Christ be praised!
O hark to what it sings, As joy-ous-ly it rings, May Je-sus Christ be praised!

The musical score is in 4/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F-sharp). It features a vocal line in the treble clef and a piano accompaniment in the bass clef. The score includes two systems of music with lyrics.

(To be sung to the tune of "A Lad's Gift")

1 Jesus sat in the temple,
Where many gifts were brought;
He saw how they were given,
And what the givers thought.

2 Though the rich gave much money,
Much more they had to pay;
There came a certain widow,
Who gave her all away.

Comment

The programs that are arranged lay no claim to being in any sense models in worship. They are merely offered by way of suggestion as to the combination of memory work with music, story, picture, talk, and prayer, so that the theme which is chosen as best adapted to accomplish a specific aim may be the more deeply impressed upon the child.

Each passage of Scripture, poem, or hymn which is memorized should be made to function in the child's worship. The utilization of his time and the constant cultivation of his religious life not only demand this, but upon this experience depends largely his intelligent and appreciative participation in church worship.

Worship for the little child is becoming at home with God his Father, learning to know Jesus as his Elder Brother, as well as an increasing number of persons whom he delights to call brothers and sisters.

The purpose of these plans of worship is to help the child genuinely feel these relationships and to enter into them with the whole of himself.

(NOTE: The preparation of the memorization element should be a part of the class work and of some week-day period, so that it may be ready for worship purposes when needed. In no case should the moments of worship be interrupted by the teaching of new matter, else the essential value of worship is lost.)

I

HOW GOD CARED FOR A BABY

(A suggested plan for the kindergarten showing how the idea of worship may be presented as one element which is woven into the program, and which appears here and there as the theme is developed.)

PIANIST—"The Hebrew Mother," by Margaret Coote Brown, No. 108.
(Played as a lullaby—rhythmic and soft—while children listen thoughtfully.)

LEADER—I wish you all good morning.

CHILDREN—Good morning, —— (name of teacher).

LEADER—I am very glad for the morning light, and I want to thank the heavenly Father for it. Will you sing thanks with me? We will think, what we are going to sing while (name pianist) plays.

PIANIST—"Thanks for Day and Night," by Fanny B. Earle, No. 11 (plays tune through).

ALL—(With eyes closed sing "Thanks for Day and Night.")
Father, now we thank thee,
For morning light,
For our days of gladness,
For rest of night.

(Ida F. Leyda. Used by permission.)

LEADER—We have another way of saying "Thank you" to our heavenly Father. We bring our gifts with our love and ask him to take them. (Name child) may bring them now.

(The children have put their money in a plate or basket on entering the room. Now it is brought by the child chosen to the teacher. As the teacher receives it she and all the children rise.)

CHILD—Who brought forward the offering, bows his head; all the children following his example.

LEADER—

Heavenly Father, gladly we come
With this our offering, bringing our love.

PIANIST—"Offering," Hymn No. 34. (Play first chord for signal, then accompany children as they sing the first stanza.)

ALL—(Sing first stanza of "Offering"):

Heavenly Father, gladly we come
With this our offering, bringing our love.

(Edith Lovell Thomas.)

LEADER—(When there is a birthday to observe) —— (name child) has a special gift of love because he (or she) has had a birthday. (Child makes his extra gift in honor of his birthday.) Let us wish him (her) a happy birthday.

CHILDREN—We wish you a very happy birthday, —— (name).
And a happier year to come.

CHILD—(Whose birthday it is) I thank you all for your good wishes.

LEADER—(Circle talk; based on story, "How a Mother Cared for Her Baby," Exodus 2. 1-10. Children may use, if desired, as one form of expression, the song "Baby Moses," No. 107.)

(When the circle talk is over, some free expression may be used such as dramatizing the story, or playing it in the sand table. Then the children may come back to the circle for the close of the hour.)

LEADER—God cared for the baby Moses, and he cares for every one of us all the time. The piano will help us remember the song we would like to sing together before we go home.

PIANIST—"Night and Day," by Fanny B. Earle, No. 12.

(Used by permission of M. L. Butler.)

CHILDREN—(Stand as pianist plays, listening attentively. Sing after tune has been played through once.)

1. When I run about all day,
When I kneel at night to pray,
God sees.
2. When I'm dreaming in the dark,
When I lie awake and hark,
God sees.

3. Need I ever know a fear?

Night and day my Father's near:

God sees.

(Mary Mapes Dodge. Used by permission of The Century Company.)

LEADER—

God made the birds and flowers
And all things large and small;
He'll not forget his little ones;
I know he loves them all.

(Anonymous.)

Good-by, all my girls and boys.

CHILDREN—Good-by, —— (name of leader).

(Children leave circle to get on wraps. If they march to another room to get wraps, have "Night and Day" played for march. If conversation and confusion are unavoidable, have no music for closing.)

II

IN OUR HOMES

LEADER—Our pianist —— (mention by name) is going to play for us a piece of music called "Greeting and Good-day." We will listen very closely to it, and when it seems to tell us to greet each other, we will bow and smile and shake hands with the one next to us.

PIANIST—(Plays) "Greeting and Good-day," W. R. McAllaster, No. 128. (Children and leader respond to the music, greeting each other, or sitting still, as the music suggests.)

LEADER—We are going to think to-day about our homes. Every one of us has a home where God has put us to live. Father and mother, brother and sister, perhaps grandma or grandpa, and some other persons live there with us. What a lot they do for us!—sew, cook, wash, sweep, work in the garden, and ever so many other things that help us to keep well and happy. What can we do to help them, we wonder? Listen to what our Good Book tells us we should do. (Reads Ephesians 6. 1-3; 4. 32.)

"Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Honor thy father and mother . . . that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth."

"And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, even as God . . . forgave you."

LEADER—Because God has given us so many good things in our homes, we will give our offering now to him.

PIANIST—(Plays during the offering) "Offering," Edith Lovell Thomas No. 34.

ALL—(Standing when offering has been made, sing "Offering.")
 Heavenly Father, gladly we come;
 With our offering bring we our love.

Thou hast giv'n us many good things;
 May we share all we have for Jesus' sake. Amen. (Seated.)
 (Edith Lovell Thomas.)

LEADER—You and I can do in just one day a great many things which will make our homes pleasant places to live in. Let us mention some of them:

ALL—

I have a little song to sing,
 A little game to play,
 A task to do for some one's sake,
 Before the close of day.

I have a little thought to think,
 A little love to share,
 A little lesson to be learned,
 A little pain to bear.

So other children spend their day,
 And so for me is best;
 Until the night comes gently down,
 And all alike shall rest.

(Abbie Farwell Brown. From
Songs of Sixpence, published by Houghton Mifflin Company.
 Used by permission.)

LEADER—Talk about Jesus in his home. (Consult When Jesus Was a Little Boy, p. 160, A First Primary Book in Religion, Elizabeth Colson, published by The Abingdon Press.)

PIANIST—(Plays very softly on conclusion of the talk by leader) "The Playmate of Nazareth," Edith Lovell Thomas, No. 115.

ALL—(Sing thoughtfully "The Playmate of Nazareth.")
 Little Lord Jesus, who used to play
 With the children of Nazareth ev'ry day,
 You used to be laughing and cheerful too,
 So make me a happy child, Lord, like you.

You used to help your dear father work,
 Teach my little fingers not to shirk;
 As you used to play when the work was done,
 Be near and watch over my games and fun.

Little Lord Jesus, who played, like me,
 On the shore by the lake in Galilee,
 Take care of a little child, I pray,
 And help me remember you ev'ry day.

(Mary Youngs. Used by permission of The New York Times.)

POEM—"I Love You, Mother." (May be recited by the group, one child, or the Leader.)

"I love you, mother," said little John;
 Then, forgetting his work, his cap went on,
 And he was off to the garden swing,
 And she had the wood and water to bring.

"I love you, mother," said rosy Nell;
 "I love you more than tongue can tell."
 Then she teased and pouted half the day,
 Till her mother was glad when she went to play.

"I love you, mother," said little Nan;
 "Today I'll help you all I can;
 How glad I am school doesn't keep!"
 Then she rocked the baby till it went to sleep.

And stepping softly she brought the broom,
 And swept the floor and tidied the room:
 Busy and happy all day was she,
 Helpful and happy as child could be.

"I love you, mother," again they said,
 Three little children going to bed;
 How do you think that mother guessed
 Which of them really loved her best?

(Anonymous.)

PIANIST—"Showing Kindness at Home," W. R. McAllaster, No. 69. (Introduction will give signal so that children will be prepared to sing when the voice part is reached.)

ALL—(Sing "Showing Kindness at Home.")

In the morning when I'm called,
 And the breakfast table's set,
 I prefer to play and play,
 And my dressing to forget.
 It makes it hard for mother
 To have her children late,
 For she gets food all ready,
 Then has to wait.

Kitty needs a dish of milk,
 All the chickens should be fed;
 When there is so much to do,
 Why do I stay in my bed?
 My puppy is so thirsty,
 I must give him a drink;
 The hour for school is coming
 Before I think.

I would like to be at home
 Very kind and helpful, too;
 Doing what my mother wants,
 And my father bids me do.
 If I can but remember
 To show my love this way,
 I know that God will help me
 Through ev'ry day.

(Edith Lovell Thomas.)

LEADER—Let us ask God to help us in our homes. (All stand. Eyes are closed and heads bowed. A moment of silence.)

LEADER—Dear Father, every one of us needs thy strong help. Be with us in our homes, making us kind and obedient. When we work and when we play may we be as gentle and thoughtful as Jesus showed us how to be. Amen.

(Dismiss the children, asking them to see how noiselessly they can leave. Omit musical number.)

III

YOUNG AMERICANS

(A children's orchestra furnishes an excellent opportunity for practice in rhythm, unity of action, and a type of cooperative effort which is very valuable and delightful to the participants. Toy instruments, such as drum, triangle, glockenspiel, bells, bone clappers, etc., may be secured at small cost. The pianist may devote some time out of school hours in which to instruct the children, so that they can play in perfect time with the piano, and with varying degrees of volume. Six or eight children at one time would be a sufficient number for the usual occasion.)

INTRODUCTION—"Patriotic Hymn," Fannie S. Knowlton, No. 100. (From Nature Songs for Children. Used by permission of Milton Bradley Company. Played by Pianist and Orchestra.)

PIANIST—(Plays first six measures) "My Country," Henry Carey (?), No. 97.
 ALL—(Stand and sing "My Country.")

My country, 'tis of thee,
 Sweet land of liberty,
 Of thee I sing;
 Land where my fathers died,
 Land of the Pilgrims' pride,
 From every mountain side
 Let freedom ring!

(Samuel F. Smith.)

LEADER—We like to sing about this great land, our country. Name some of the things that make it a beautiful country. (Hills, valleys, woods, rocks, rivers, trees, meadows, etc., will probably be mentioned. Suggest how favored we are to live in a land so full of beauty, rather than on a desert, or in an extremely cold region.) Let us sing about this beautiful country.

PIANIST—(Plays) First Chord of "My Country."

ALL—(Sing 2d stanza "My Country.")

My native country, thee,
 Land of the noble free,
 Thy name I love;
 I love thy rocks and rills,
 Thy woods and templed hills;
 My heart with rapture thrills,
 Like that above.

(Seated.) (Samuel F. Smith.)

LEADER—What is the name of our country?

ALL—Our country is America.

LEADER—What are the colors in our flag?

ALL—The colors in our flag are red, white, and blue.

LEADER—I will ask —— (name child) to hold our country's flag while we sing to it; for I can trust him to stand very still and straight, showing honor to the flag.

(The child chosen comes forward, takes large flag attached to tall standard, faces group, and holds it motionless throughout the singing.)

PIANIST—(Plays tune through) "Our Flag," Edith Lovell Thomas, No. 98.

ALL—(Stand as first chord is struck and sing as soon as pianist has played tune through “Our Flag.”)

Out on the breeze,
O'er land and seas,
A beautiful banner is streaming;
Shining its stars,
Splendid its bars,
Under the sunshine 'tis gleaming.

Over the brave,
Long may it wave,
Peace to the world ever bringing;
While to the stars
Linked with the bars,
Hearts will forever be singing.

(Seated.) (Lydia Avery Coonley Ward.
Used by permission.)

LEADER—Every girl and every boy who lives in America knows the story of some man or woman who has done something to make this country a fine place for us to live in. Do you know why it is the finest place in all the world to you and me? I will tell you the secret. (Speak in half whisper.) Because the people who began to make this home for us asked God to take care of it and watch over it all the time. Do you think that he is taking care of our country? We must always remember him and thank him for his splendid care of our dear America. We will show that we do remember him by giving to him our money.

PIANIST—(Plays during offering) “My Country.”

ALL—(Stand after offering and sing “My Country.”)

Our fathers' God, to thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King. Amen.

(Seated.) (Samuel F. Smith.)

LEADER—(Brief story of some great American—Lincoln, Washington, or other national hero or heroine—telling one thing he did for our country for which we honor him. Material of this nature may be found in Boyhood of Famous Americans, Children of History, Annie Chase, Educational Publishing Society. Have the children express individually what they would like to be and do for our country to show that they are true Americans.)

LEADER—(Prays while all heads are bowed.) We ask thee, our Father, to help each one of us. We want to be brave, truthful, and loving like the one we have heard about to-day. Keep America always a fine place to live in, where boys and girls can grow up pure and strong. Amen.

PIANIST—(Plays while Leader and assistants pin on each child an American flag pin, or present each child with a tiny flag) "On Holidays," Edith Lovell Thomas, No. 99.

LEADER—Every time you look at your flag, think, "I am a young American, I must be true to my country."

ALL—(Sing when pianist gives chord "On Holidays.")

Waving, waving are our colors bright!
 Glowing, glowing in the morning light!
 Calling, calling—Red and White and Blue—
 "To your country, children all, be true!"

Gaily, gaily on our holidays,
 Proudly, proudly we this banner raise!
 Highly, highly honor heroes fine
 Living, dying for your flag and mine!

Soldiers, sailors—many other men,
 Women, also, suffered for us, when
 Foll'wing Lincoln and George Washington,
 Fighting bravely for the right, they won.

(Edith Lovell Thomas.)

PIANIST—(Continues playing until all have gone) "On Holidays."

IV

GOD'S DAY

PIANIST—(Plays) "Nicaea," by John B. Dykes.

Nicaea

JOHN B. DYKES, 1861

LEADER—Let us all bow our heads while we say our Sunday prayer

ALL—(With bowed heads.)

Dear God, this is your Holy Day—
 Your Sunday, when the sun
 Looks back across the days gone by
 To see what Good was done.
 It is a day when all our lives
 Should stop awhile and rest;

A day to wait and think about
 The purest and the best.
 God, rest and bless my heart and me
 In just the truest way.
 God guard my life by strength that comes
 On this dear Holy Day. Amen.

(From Prayers for Little Men and Women, by John Martin. Copyright, 1912, by Harper and Brothers. Used by permission.)

LEADER—Let us sing about what Jesus did on this holy day. (Pianist plays last four measures of “St. Hill,” by John Stainer, No. 28.)

ALL—(Sing “As We Truly Worship,” Hymn No. 28.)

1. As we truly worship
 On this holy day,
 We remember Jesus
 And what he did say:
2. “In my heavenly Father’s house,”
 He said, “I must be,
 For I always do the things
 He expects of me.”
3. Always on the Sabbath,
 Great delight he took,
 As he heard the reading
 From the sacred Book.
4. When he grew to be a man,
 Then he taught, and read
 To a people wondering
 At the words he said.

(Edith Lovell Thomas.)

LEADER—Very long ago God told his friends that he wanted them to use one day of the week for a rest day, and the other six days for busy work days. Can you remember just what he said about the days of the week?

CHILDREN—“Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a sabbath unto Jehovah thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore Jehovah blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.” (Exodus 20. 8-11.)

LEADER—The people wanted to spend part of the rest day in worshipping God. As they needed a place in which to worship him, God said: “Let them make me a sanctuary, that I may dwell among them” (Exodus 25. 8).

“Aaron and his sons shall keep it in order” (Exodus 27. 21).

“I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God” (Exodus 29. 45).

And he also told them,

“My house shall be called a house of prayer” (Isaiah 56. 7).

That is why people all over the world make beautiful houses where they may meet to pray to God. We will think about our own dear church.

(Show picture of local church. Remind the children how their fathers and mothers and friends have planned and worked to make this church a fine house for God.)

ALL—

Our dear church was builded
 Long ago with prayer,
 So that all the neighbors
 Might find welcome there.

(Anonymous.)

LEADER—Are you not glad that we have such a place in which to worship God on his day? Let us sing about God’s house. (Pianist plays “This is God’s House,” by W. G. Ogilvee, No. 1.)

ALL—(Sing “This is God’s House.”)

This is God’s house,
 And he is here to-day.
 He hears each song of praise
 And listens when we pray.

(L. M. Ogilvie. Used by permission of The Congregational Publishing Society.)

LEADER—We want the heavenly Father to know how much we love this day, so we bring to him our gifts. (Pianist plays “Nicæa” in tempo which suits children’s pace.)

CHILDREN—(Pass before leader who holds the plate and lay their offering upon it, moving quietly and in order back to their places, where they remain standing.)

LEADER—Let us speak to the Father about our gift of love to him, as we close our eyes.

Take this offering, dear Father,
 From the children’s hands, we pray;

CHILDREN—

As a gift of love we bring it,
 To thee on thy worship day.

(Edith Lovell Thomas.)

PIANIST—(Plays “Nicæa” as children are seated, pass to classes or march out, according to what follows the worship period.)

V

FRIENDS WHOM WE HAVE NEVER SEEN

PRELUDE—(Pianist plays) “Turkish March,” Mozart.

Turkish March

MOZART

The first system of the score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a 2/4 time signature, featuring a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, including a triplet of eighth notes. The lower staff is in bass clef, providing a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The dynamic marking pp is placed at the beginning of the system.

The second system continues the piece. The upper staff has a melodic line with some slurs and accents. The lower staff features chords with dynamic markings sfz (sforzando) placed above the notes. The system concludes with a repeat sign.

The third system shows a change in dynamics. The upper staff has chords with accents and dynamic markings mf (mezzo-forte) and f (forte). The lower staff continues with a steady accompaniment. The system ends with a repeat sign.

The fourth system features a melodic line in the upper staff with slurs and accents, and a bass line in the lower staff. Dynamic markings p (piano) and pp are used. The system concludes with a repeat sign.

The fifth system is the final system on the page. The upper staff has a melodic line with a trill (tr) and a fermata. The lower staff has a bass line with dynamic markings f (forte). The system ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

LEADER—Did you like the music that —— (name pianist) just played for you? That was written by some one, whom you never saw, who lived a long time ago. (Holding up A First Book in Hymns and Worship.) This book is full of music that was written for us by people we have never seen, but we love to sing their beautiful tunes, do we not? Ever since people began to worship God they have wanted to sing to him, and always he has had some one whom he could trust to write fine music by which they could speak to God in song.

There have been other people who have given us beautiful words in which to speak to God, so that we might all talk to him at the same time. I am so glad that we know "Jehovah is my shepherd" so that we can all say it at the same time, for I know that God is pleased to hear it.

ALL—

"Jehovah is my shepherd; I shall not want.
 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
 He leadeth me beside still waters.
 He restoreth my soul:
 He guideth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
 I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
 Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.
 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
 Thou hast anointed my head with oil;
 My cup runneth over.
 Surely goodness and lovingkindness shall follow me all the days of life;
 And I shall dwell in the house of Jehovah for ever."

(Psalm 23.)

LEADER—We will bring our offering unto the Lord.

PIANIST—(Plays during offering) "Hesperus," Henry W. Baker, No. 113.

ALL—(After offering, sing during presentation "To the God of All," No. 113.)

God of our friends of long ago,
 Thou art the God to whom we pray;
 O teach us what we ought to know,
 And what to do, and what to say.

We need thy help each day we live,
 As children did in days gone by;
 And may we help to others give,
 Though they are far away or nigh.

(Edith Lovell Thomas.)

LEADER—You and I have all around us those things that have been made for us by friends whom we do not know. Let us stop and think what they have given to us. (Let the children suggest the pictures on the wall, stories, music.)

PIANIST—(Plays eight measures) “Friends from Afar,” Mozart, No. 106.

ALL—(Sing as they stand ‘ Friends from Afar.’)

Beautiful pictures that we see
 Were painted in far Italy;
 Much of the music that is played
 In Germany was made.
 England has written wonder tales
 Full of delight that never fails;
 France has giv’n us dainty clothes to wear—
 Designs in colors fair.

How strange that people far away
 Serve you and me this very day!
 How could we live without their thought,
 And all their work has brought?
 We’ll speak politely as we can
 To bootblack and banana man,
 For they come from those good lands afar
 To our America.

(Edith Lovell Thomas.)

LEADER—The music you have just sung was written by a very great man whom all the world remembers because of his wonderful music. I will introduce him to you, and you may always call him Mozart. When he was a tiny boy of five he could play and even write good music. And because his parents were poor, his father took him and his older sister on a journey to a city where both the children could play for people who were glad to pay them money for the fine music they made. How happy the children were to earn some money in this way to help their father, for he had worked hard to teach them the music they knew! As Mozart grew up he kept on studying and making more and more music so that anywhere you go to-day where the best music is played, in church, at a concert, on a Victrola, you will hear Mozart's music.

 —— (Name pianist) will play one of his pieces now.

PIANIST—(Plays) "Turkish March."

LEADER—Are you not glad that Mozart composed such a bright tune for us? Would you like to thank God, who taught him how to make music which goes around the world and cheers everyone who listens to it?

ALL—(Cover eyes with hands. Spontaneous prayers may be given such as)—
 For beautiful music, we thank thee. We are glad that Mozart wrote music for us to sing.

LEADER—Dear Father, from whom cometh every good and every perfect gift, we give to thee our thanks for the beautiful gift of music. We are made happy because Mozart took such good care of his gift and shared it with the whole world, so that we can be blessed by it to-day. Help every child to use the gift he has, not for himself alone but for everyone near and far with whom he can share. Amen.

JESUS THE CHILDREN'S FRIEND

PIANIST—(Plays) "Tell Me the Stories of Jesus," by F. A. Challinor, No. 22.

ALL—(Sing "Tell Me the Stories of Jesus," Hymn No. 22.)

1. Tell me the stories of Jesus
 I love to hear;
 Things I would ask him to tell me
 If he were here;
 Scenes by the wayside,
 Tales of the sea,
 Stories of Jesus—
 Tell them to me,

2. First let me hear how the children
 Stood round his knee;
 And I shall fancy his blessing
 Resting on me;
 Words full of kindness,
 Deeds full of grace,
 All in the lovelight
 Of Jesus' face.

(W. H. Parker. Copyright. Used by permission of The Sunday School Union.)

LEADER—We will tell how the children stood round his knee. “He [Jesus] called to him a little child, and set him in the midst of them” (Matthew 18. 2).

CHILDREN—“Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should lay his hands on them, and pray” (Matthew 19. 13).

LEADER—“Jesus said, Suffer the little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me; for to such belongeth the kingdom of heaven” (Matthew 19. 14).

CHILDREN—“And he took them in his arms, and blessed them, laying his hands upon them” (Mark 10. 16).

PIANIST—(Plays) “Sweet Story,” No. 27 (using only the music for the first and fourth lines of the stanza.)

ALL—(Sing second stanza of “I Should Like to Have Been with Him,” Hymn No. 27.)

I wish that his hands had been placed on my head,
 That his arms had been thrown around me;
 And that I might have seen his kind look when he said,
 “Let the little ones come unto me!”

(Jemima Thompson Luke.)

LEADER—We can speak to Jesus, and he will hear our prayer as we now say it all together.

ALL—(With bowed heads)

We come to thee, friend Jesus,
 As others did one day;
 We want thy love and kindness,
 And for thy help we pray. Amen.

(Edith Lovell Thomas.)

LEADER—There was once a boy who became one of Jesus' real friends. A very hungry crowd of men, women, and children stood about Jesus on the shore of a lovely lake. All the afternoon they had been listening to his wonderful stories. They listened so eagerly that they forgot all about the time of day. Night was fast coming on and the village where food could be bought was far away.

Jesus felt very sorry when he saw how tired and hungry the people looked; yet he had no food to share with them. What could be done?

Just then his friend Andrew hurried up to him and whispered into his ear: "There is a boy here who has five wafers and two small fish. I don't suppose they would be of any use in such a crowd as this."

Jesus looked pleased and said quickly, "Bring them to me."

The wafers and the fish were all that the boy had for his own lunch, but when he found that Jesus wanted them, he was glad to give them to him, for he loved him as did every boy and girl who once looked into his fine face and saw him smile.

Can you think how surprised the boy was when he saw how Jesus used his small gift?

The first thing Jesus did was to thank the heavenly Father for the good food, and, perhaps, for the boy who gave it so willingly. Then he divided it among his friends who stood around him, ready to help, and asked them to pass it around among all the hungry people.

The crowd was so large Jesus asked them to sit down in small groups, so that his friends might serve them quickly and no one be overlooked.

The people ate very thankfully, and there was plenty for all and some left over. This Jesus saved so that nothing was wasted.

Never in all his life had the boy been so happy. For had he not helped Jesus who was always helping other people? Because of the boy's gift, Jesus was able to feed many, many men, women, and children that day.

Shall we bring him our gifts with our love to-day? As our gifts are collected by —— (name child or children previously chosen) ——

(name of child or older person who has been prepared for this service) will sing to us.

SOLOIST—(During the collecting of the offering sings “A Lad’s Gift,” No. 111.)

1. “There’s a lad here,” said Andrew
 To Jesus Christ one day,
 “With barley loaves and fishes—
 Of little use are they!”
2. “Bring them hither,” said Jesus.
 Then, looking up, he prayed;
 And with the Father’s blessing,
 Enough for all was made.
3. Fathers, mothers and children—
 Five thousand folks, they say—
 Became the guests of Jesus,
 Were served by him that day.
4. Very little the lad gave—
 His lunch of fish and bread;
 Though small the gift, divided,
 Full many folk were fed.
5. Let each child bring his best gift;
 Our Jesus loveth such;
 He maketh all our small ones
 The larger with his touch.

(Edith Lovell Thomas.)

LEADER—Jesus has told us how each one may be a friend to him. Can we remember his very words?

ALL—“Ye are my friends, if ye do the things which I command you” (John 15. 14).

“This is my commandment, that ye love one another, even as I have loved you” (John 15. 12).

LEADER—Let us ask Jesus to be our Friend.

ALL—(With closed eyes.)

Jesus, Friend of little children,
 Be a friend to me;
 Take my hand and ever keep me
 Close to thee.

Teach me how to grow in goodness
 Daily as I grow;
 Thou hast been a Child, and surely
 Thou dost know.

(Rev. Walter J. Mathams.)

LEADER—We will think about Jesus our Friend as —— (naming pianist) plays.

PIANIST—(Plays) "Tell Me Stories of Jesus," No. 22, (after which the worship concludes without further music.)

GOD'S GOOD GIFTS

(In preparation for this service there should be arranged at least one bowl of wild flowers and some cultivated flowers which have been brought by the children for the enjoyment of the group. A more elaborate decoration which may be planned for and carried out by the children with the help of the teacher will provide an excellent means for group cooperation, and make the service a truer form of expression in worship.)

PIANIST—"A Morning in Summer," by W. R. McAllaster, No. 129.

LEADER—We live in a world where our Father has put many good things for his children to use and enjoy. To-day we are going to think about some of these good gifts and thank the One who has given them to us.

PIANIST—"Dresden," No. 18, by J. A. P. Schultz.

ALL—(Sing "We Thank Thee," No. 19.)

We thank thee, O our Father,
 For all thy loving care;
 We thank thee that thou madest
 The world so bright and fair.
 We thank thee for the sunshine,
 And for the pleasant show'rs;
 And, O our God, we thank thee,
 We thank thee for the flow'rs.

LEADER—In the last line you sang you thanked the Father for one gift which makes our room beautiful this morning. Will you say that last line again?

CHILDREN—(Recite) “We thank thee for the flow'rs.”

LEADER—Jesus talked about the lilies which grew in the fields near his home, and asked his friends to notice how they grew. He said they were more finely dressed than any king in all his royal robes. He told them that God clothed the grass in its soft, green dress, and begged them to remember that the very same One gave them their food and clothes as well as all other things they needed. Close your eyes and think of the places in the country where you have seen flowers growing.

LEADER—(After a moment's silence): While you are remembering I will help you by naming some of the places where I have seen them.

PIANIST—“Dresden” (playing as softly as possible while teacher recites).

LEADER—

Out in the sunny meadows,
 And in the woodlands cool,
 Upon the breezy hillside,
 And by each reedy pool,
 And in the quiet pasture,
 And by the broad highway;
 All pure, and fresh, and stainless,
 They spring up ev'ry day.

LEADER—(Tells very briefly of a plant growing in a city window cared for by someone who loved it, and watered it until it bloomed. Or the story may illustrate how a flower sent to an ill or elderly person carried cheer with it.)

LEADER—Let us sing about the flowers which grow in the city.

PIANIST—First chord of “Dresden.”

ALL—(Sing “We Thank Thee,” 3rd stanza.)

And in the dusty city,
 Where busy crowds pass by,
 And where the tall dark houses
 Stand up and hide the sky,
 And where through lanes and alleys
 No pleasant breezes blow,
 E'en there, O God our Father,
 Thou mak'st the flow'rs to grow.

LEADER—Who hath made everything beautiful?

CHILDREN—“He hath made everything beautiful in its time” (Ecclesiastes 3. 11).

LEADER—Wherever we see flowers they tell us of God's love for us. We will say together the last stanza of “We Thank Thee.”

ALL—(Recite)

And whether in the city,
 Or in the fields they dwell;
 Always the same sweet message
 The fair, sweet flowers tell.
 For they are all so wonderful,
 They show thy pow'r abroad;
 And they are all so beautiful,
 They tell thy love, O God.

LEADER—We too may tell God's love to others by making an offering.

PIANIST—“Gifts of Love,” by Edith Lovell Thomas, No. 29. (Played quietly while offering is being made.)

ALL—(Stand as they sing “Gifts of Love,” after offering has been made.)

Father, bless the gifts we bring thee,
 Give them something sweet to do,
 May they help some one to help thee,
 Father, may we love thee, too. (Seated.)

LEADER—We have been made happy by the flowers that have been brought here to-day by —— (name those who furnished flowers). Would you like to make some one else happy by sharing your flowers with them?

CHILDREN—(Make suggestions, and one child or more may be given the privilege of taking the flowers to an absent, ill, or elderly friend.)

LEADER—(Prays while all are standing with eyes closed): Dear Father, we are glad that we have thy love, shown to us in many good gifts. For every one of the gifts we thank thee. May we make thee glad by being thy loving children, even as the flowers have made us glad to-day.

CHILDREN—Amen.

PIANIST—"Father, We Thank Thee," by W. K. Bassford, No. 15. (Plays first four measures and refrain.)

ALL—(Sing) "Father We Thank Thee."

Can a little child like me
Thank the Father fittingly?
Yes, O yes, be good and true,
Patient, kind in all you do,
Love the Lord and do your part,
Learn to say with all your heart,

(Refrain)

Father, we thank thee,
Father, we thank thee,
Father in heaven, we thank thee!

For the fruit upon the tree,
For the birds that sing of thee,
For the earth in beauty dressed,
Father, mother, and the rest;
For thy precious loving care,
For thy bounty ev'rywhere,

(Refrain)

(Mary Mapes Dodge. Used by permission of The Century Company.)

PIANIST—"Marching," by W. R. McAllaster, No. 126.

VIII

GIVING THANKS

(Have a basket of fall fruits and vegetables on table in front of room; also have some ears and stalks of Indian corn in evidence.)

PROCESSIONAL—"For Peace and Plenty," Fanny S. Knowlton, No. 100. (Played by pianist in strict march rhythm. If it is not feasible for the children to march from another room into their own, they may march around their own room two or three times, and pass in orderly line to their respective places.)

ALL—(Stand in their respective places and sing "For Peace and for Plenty.")

For sowing and reaping, for cold and for heat,
 For the sweet of the flow'rs and the gold of the wheat;
 For ships in the harbor, for sails on the sea,
 O Father in heaven, our songs rise to thee.

For waking and sleeping, for blessings to be,
 We children would offer our praises to thee;
 For God is our Father and bends from above,
 To keep the round world in the smile of his love.

(Margaret E. Sangster. Used by permission of Milton Bradley Company. Taken from Nature Songs for Children.)

Leader—This is the time of year when we give special thanks for all the good things which we have. To whom shall we give thanks to-day?

ALL—"O give thanks unto Jehovah, for he is good" (Psalm 107. 1).

LEADER—"Jehovah is good to all" (Psalm 145. 9).

"Let everything that hath breath praise Jehovah" (Psalm 150. 6a).

ALL—"Praise ye Jehovah" (Psalm 150. 6).

RESPONSE—(Pianist plays first chord of Refrain) "Thank the Lord for All His Love," J. A. P. Schultz, No. 18.

ALL—(Sing Refrain of "Thank the Lord for All His Love.")

All good things around us
 Are sent from heaven above;
 Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord
 For all his love.

(Matthias Claudius, translated by Jane M. Campbell.)

LEADER—There are many ways of saying “Thank you” to God. One way is to give him our money with our love. Shall we do that now?

PIANIST—(Plays while offering is being made) “Hymn of Praise,” arranged from Conrad Kocher, No. 20.

ALL—(Stand and sing when offering has been made) “Hymn of Praise.”

For the beauty of the earth,
 For the glory of the skies,
 For the love which from our birth
 Over and around us lies,
 Lord of all, to thee we raise
 This our hymn of grateful praise. Amen.

(Seated.) (Folliott S. Pierpoint.)

THE STORY OF THE FIRST THANKSGIVING—(Told by a child who has heard the Leader tell the story to her, and has retold it to the Leader before giving it to the group. Wiltse: Kindergarten Morning Talks—“Story of the First Thanksgiving,” is a good source to consult.)

LEADER—You have heard how the Pilgrims gave thanks to God for what they had. How many of you think of something for which you would like to thank the Father? (Hands are raised.) You may shut your eyes and think. I will say my thanks first, and when you hear your name spoken, you may say your thanks. (All heads bowed and eyes closed. A moment of silence.) I thank thee, my Father, for all these thy children who are thinking of thee now. (Speaks the name of one child whose hand was raised.)

CHILD—Dear Father, I thank thee for my home. (Or some similar thought the child will doubtless express. Leader continues to call the names of the children, very quietly, until all who wish to have said their thanks.)

ALL—(Sing after pianist has played first four and last four measures of “Thanksgiving Hymn,” Martin Luther, No. 95.)

The Pilgrim people, long ago,
 Gave thanks for corn in harvest days;
 The friendly Indians gave the seed
 From which there grew a crop of maize.

The Pilgrim people then with joy
 A party for the Indians made;
 They ate wild turkey at the feast,
 And many kinds of games were played.

Now let us on Thanksgiving Day,
 Thank God for food and helpful friends;
 And in our homes as in our church,
 Be grateful for the love he sends.

(Edith Lovell Thomas.)

CONCLUDING MUSIC—Pianist plays “Thanksgiving Hymn” as children retire.

IX

THE BIRTHDAY OF JESUS

PRELUDE—“Church Chimes”—(Victor Record, No. 16825)—Victrola; or
 “The Christ-child,” by Mary H. Knox, No. 78, Piano.

LEADER—The bells call us to remember the Birthday of Jesus. (The children are asked to tell the name of the day, the date, when Jesus was born and where, the name of his mother.) Long before Jesus was born people hoped for the day when such a child should come to live on earth, and one who looked for him wrote:

“Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace” (Isaiah 9. 6).

When the time came he was born in a strange place, about which we will sing.

PIANIST—Plays last four measures of “Away in a Manger,” No. 84.

ALL—(Stand and sing)

Away in a manger,
 No crib for a bed,
 The little Lord Jesus
 Laid down his sweet head.
 The stars in the bright sky
 Looked down where he lay,
 The little Lord Jesus,
 Asleep on the hay.

LEADER—Let us say instead of sing the last stanza. With our eyes closed we will say our prayer.

ALL—(Stand with eyes closed)

Be near me, Lord Jesus,
 I ask thee to stay
 Close by me forever,
 And love me, I pray.
 Bless all the dear children
 In thy tender care,
 And help us to please thee,
 And willingly share.

(Martin Luther, Altered.)

PIANIST—Plays "Amen":

LEADER—Wise-men from far away heard that a wonderful Baby had been born and they traveled a long, hard journey that they might see him. You may tell the story of their visit.

ALL—(Repeat from memory) "Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold, Wise-men from the east came to Jerusalem, saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we saw his star in the east, and are come to worship him. . . . And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search out exactly concerning the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word, that I also may come and worship him. And they, having heard the king, went their way; and lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. And when they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. And they came into the house and saw the young child with Mary his mother; and they fell down and worshipped him; and opening their treasures they offered unto him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh" (Matthew 2. 1, 2, 8-11).

(If the story seems too long for the entire group to memorize, it may be treated responsively, recited by Leader and group, or it may be divided among four individual children, to be given consecutively.)

LEADER—"Opening their treasures they offered unto him gifts." We too would bring him the very best we have. (If the offering for the day can be prepared for by planning in advance to give a special gift to a children's hospital, home, mission school, or other purpose of vital interest to the children, and for which they have earned and saved their money, this should be commented upon briefly here.)

PIANIST—Plays "Offering," by Edith Lovell Thomas, No. 34.

ALL—(Stand and sing to tune of "Offering.")

Wise men brought to him their treasures;
 Each one offered him a gift;
 Now our best we give to Jesus,
 Unto him our song we lift.

PIANIST—Continues to play "Offering" until all the gifts have been made. (Seated.)

LEADER—We will think about the little child Jesus while —— (naming child who has memorized "Christmas Day," by John Martin), prays for each of us. Shall we shut our eyes so that we can follow closely?

CHILD—(Who has been chosen rises in his place, bows his head, and very slowly and quietly prays)

Long, long ago a Little Child
 Came to our world to be
 A holy gift with God's true Love
 To every child like me.
 This Little Child of God came down
 To show the world a way
 To give some joy to everyone
 On Merry Christmas Day.

This Little Child was Jesus, and
 He was a Gift from heaven.
 God, make me see exactly why
 Your Christmas Gift was given.
 God, make me know that I should give
 Some gifts and love away,
 Help me to be a child who makes
 A Merry Christmas Day. Amen.

(From Prayers for Little Men and Women, by John Martin. Copyright, 1912, by Harper & Brothers. Used by permission.)

PIANIST—Plays introduction to "The Christ-child," by Mary H. Knox, No. 78.

ALL—(Stand and sing "The Christ-child.")

1. In a country far away,
 In a manger on the hay,
 Lay a Baby, pure and sweet,
 Lay the little Christ-child.
3. To this Babe of kingly fame
 Wise-men with their treasures came,
 Guided by a shining star
 To the little Christ-child.
4. So on happy Christmas Day,
 At our work and at our play,
 We with joyful hearts will sing
 Of the little Christ-child.

(Mary H. Knox. Used by permission of The Congregational Publishing Society.)

X

THE GLAD EASTER TIME

PRELUDE—"To Spring," by Grieg (or any standard selection on this order).

ALL—(Stand and recite)

Lo, the winter is past;
 The rain is over and gone;
 The flowers appear on the earth;
 The time of the singing of birds is come,
 And the voice of the turtle-dove is heard in our land;
 The fig-tree ripeneth her green figs,
 And the vines are in blossom;
 They give forth their fragrance.

(Song of Solomon 2. 11-13c).

PIANIST—Plays chord for "On a Spring Day," Schubert, No. 5.

ALL—(Sing)

All the beauty out of doors
 Calls, "O worship God the Lord!
 Add your gladness, boys and girls,
 To the joy song of the world!"

(Seated.) (Edith Lovell Thomas.)

A BOY—(Standing by Leader recites from memory) "Three Green Eggs."

There are three green eggs in a small brown pocket,
 And the breeze will swing and the gale will rock it,
 Till three little birds on the thin edge teeter,
 And our God will be glad and our world be sweeter.

(Edwin Markham. Used by permission.)

SIX CHILDREN—(Having been prepared to make this contribution to the service, now come from the front where they have been seated together, face others, and recite from memory their lines.)

First Child

Spring bursts to-day,
 For Christ is risen, and all the earth's at play.

Second Child

Flash forth, thou sun,
 The rain is over and gone; its work is done.

Third Child

Winter is past,
Sweet spring is come at last, is come at last.

Fourth Child

Uplift thy head,
O pure white lily, through the winter dead.

Fifth Child

Beside your dams,
Leap and rejoice, you merry-making lambs.

Sixth Child

All herds and flocks
Rejoice, all beasts of thickets and of rocks.

Six Children

Sing, creatures, sing,
Angels and men and birds and everything.

(From "An Easter Carol," Christina G. Rossetti.)

(Children return to seats.)

SOLOIST—(Child who can sing from memory, chosen beforehand) "A Wonderful Change," No. 90. (Words by Edith Lovell Thomas; music by Carey Bonner, used by permission of the Sunday School Union.)

LEADER—The Story of Easter (told in, as nearly as possible, the language of Matthew 28. 1-10, only altering words to make the story more easily understood by the children).

ALL—(Stand and sing "The First Easter," Chopin, No. 89. Pianist plays the last eight measures while children listen):

Within a garden fair,
When Mary hurried there,
An angel all in white
She saw, with face alight.

"Be not afraid," said he,
"I know you long to see
Your dearest Friend to-day;
Come, enter where he lay."

“But Jesus is not there.
With all the good news share
That he, who once was dead,
Is risen as he said.”

As soon as Mary heard
She ran to bear the word,
And on the happy way
Her Jesus met that day.

Then Jesus said, “Now go,
And let my brothers know,
That soon in Galilee,
They, too, my face shall see.”

(Edith Lovell Thomas.)

LEADER—(Asks children to close their eyes as she prays): We love to hear the story of the loving women who went to see the resting place of Jesus in the quiet garden. Without him they must have been so lonely and sad. We thank thee, our Father, for sending the angel to tell them the wonderful surprise that Jesus was alive and that they would see him. How glad they were and how glad we are, for he is our Friend as well as theirs! May we remember his words, and be quick to do what makes him glad. Amen.

LEADER—One of the things that Jesus said was, “Freely ye received, freely give” (Matthew 10. 8). As we give to-day, we are going to think over all that we can remember of the words that Jesus said.

PIANIST—(Plays softly during the offering service) “Melodie,” Walter Russell Johnston, No. 121.

PRESENTATION OF LILY—(There is present some guest whom the children have requested, by written invitation, during the week, to attend their service. Let this person be someone whom the children know to have had some recent sadness, or one to whom they feel some obligation as to their minister, superintendent or older friend. The lily has been purchased with their money saved for the purpose, brought on Palm Sunday, and it has held the central place in the decorations for the day. The Leader asks the guest to come forward, and the child who has been chosen presents to him (or her) the lily, wishing the receiver a glad Easter, expressing the good will of the group. Let the child use his own words after planning with the Leader what he thinks the children would wish to have said for them.)

EASTER GIFT OF THE DEPARTMENT TO THE CHILDREN

(The department may provide a pansy or other plant for each child to take home and plant. The idea may be expressed by the Leader that if the plant is carefully tended, it will give the child many blossoms which he may in turn give away; for the more the blossoms are picked the more blossoms there will be to pick. Another gift might well be a beautiful picture, such as "Jesus, the Children's Friend," by Schade, Tabor Prang Art Company, Springfield, Massachusetts, framed to fit a prominent place on the walls of the department room, which the children may always associate with the remembering of Jesus and his words. In either case the Leader can make this part of the service a significant climax to the Easter worship.)

PIANIST—(Plays for postlude or recessional) "March Romaine," by Gounod, No. 127.
